The Archin Cancasian. President on Missouri Affairs—Inter- HISTORY OF THE DOINGS OF THE

SCHOOL GIRLS. By Halleck.

Merrily bounds the morning back
Along the summer sea;
Morrily mounts the morning back
The topmost twip on tree
Merrily smiles the morning rose,
The morning sun to see;
And merrily, merrily greets the rose
The honey-sucking hee
But merrier, merrier for than these,
Who brings on the wings of the morning bre
A music sweeter than her own;
A happy group of loves and graces,
Graceful forms and lovely faces,
All in gay delight outdown
tutflown from their school-room cages,
School-room rules and school-room pages,
Lovely in their feete and treases.
Summer smiles and summer dresses,
Wooing passion's fond caresses.
Joyons in their dance and song,
With sweet si terly caresses,

With sweet sisterly caresses, Arm-in-arm they speed along

He says there are too many responsibilities surrounding him, and that he is dissatisfied with his present condition. The Probate Court having no jurisdiction in the premises, has forwarded his petition to Thad. Stevens.

A writer in the New Orleans Christian Advocate says that, so far as he has ascertained between one thousand and tweive hundred church houses were burned during the war. These churches, he thinks, had cost the people not less than five millions of dollars. In the loss the Methodists were the greatest sufferers, the Baptists next, then the Presby-terians, the Catholics least.
